Assignment 1: 30-second commercial about myself

By Fritz Herrmann

(TV Screen fades in to Fritz)

Fritz: Hi, I'm Frederick Herrmann, but you can call me Fritz. I am a super creative person. I write super creative stories about superheroes, I draw well and I am a very talented musician. Not many people have this talent breadth. I think I would be a great asset to a game development company. And – don't tell - I really like going off-road in the desert.

(Captions fade in at the bottom of the screen saying, "Email: fritz@princefritz.com")
